INTEREST GROWING IN THE REVIVAL

RECORD BREAKING ATTENDANCE LAST NIGHT

Nearly 3,500 People Estimated to Have Been Present —Saturday Evening Services Also Drew Big Crowd —Many Attending From Surrounding Country.

The Gypsy Smith revival services continue to be the center of attraction in the city. Last night's meeting was a record-breaker, for attendance, nearly 3,500 people being present, many standing outside the tent, openings being made so they could hear.

Indications are that the present week will be a big one as interest in the meetings has been steadily growing. The work of the large choir, has been most praise-worthy. A male chorus of some 75 voices rendered excellent music last night, and Saturday night as well. Practically all the various churches in the city were closed last evening in order to give the people an opportunity to attend the services.

Saturday evening Mr. Smith spoke on "Partakers of the Divine Nature". The preacher took his text from the epistle of Peter, and for something over an hour spoke to the congregation on the Christian life. He said that the tendency of today was to cheapen Christian life; that today there were men and women in the church who never could have been called believers in the good old days.

"To be a true follower of Christ a man must have the three requisites of Christianity; he must be a partaker of the divine nature, a partaker of His suffering and a partaker of His Glory.

"In the old days the living of a Christian life was a warfare; it was a pilgrimage. Unbelievers used to come to the altar rail and be prayed for by their Christian friends, who stayed all night in prayer if needs be. It used to be that one would pluck out the right eye sin, the right arm sin; it used to be that one would be maimed, would become blind, would even die for God. Now you don't see that, We've cheapened the Christian life. We've taken away its vital points.

"I've seen in the olden days, and many of you remember them, when a man would be called a fool for Christ. I remember one Sunday afternoon, as my father was leading a band of faithful workers through the slums of London, teaching and preaching of God's word, a drunken man picked up a rock and threw at him. Today he bears the mark of that rock. But he was willing to have that mark for Christ.

"If we are going to follow Christ we have got to stay with him. The disciples didn't start on the road to Damascus when they saw he was going to Jerusalem to be crucified. They stayed with him. Do you think a woman who plays bridge while her son hugs a bar is following Christ? Do you think she would tell you, if you were to say to her that her son was in a saloon, and she was playing cards. 'I am following Christ'? You can't follow Christ and have beer in your ice box. The trouble with us is, that we are willing to follow Christ just as long as it is convenient, as long as it does not interfere with our plans."

" My wife and I could play cards without any harm to us. But we've got a boy ten years old and I don't know what it might do for him. I could preach an easy gospel that would crowd the aisles with people to join the church. But I won't. I don't want to get into heaven by the skin of my teeth."

Last Evening's Service

Previous to the sermon Miss Choate of Rockville, Md., and Mr. Smith sang a duet entitled "Sweeter as the years go by." The announcements followed, after which came the sermon.

"What must I do to be saved," was the theme last night. Among the attention-arresting statements the evangelist made were these:

"What is the predominating evil that stands between you and Christ? If its drink, you must let it go. If its untruthfulness you must let that go. If its some rotten deal, you must stop it and make it right. Go back and clear up the mean things you have done and put right things first.

"I preached this sermon down in Macon, Georgia, and a young man came forward, gave his heart to God, and then confessed to the faculty of his college that he had cheated in his examinations. He made things right.

"You church members talk about joy. Yes, but you won't know what it really means until you do right.

"Some of you would be in Hell if you were in my home for a week for we wouldn't have anything in common. God has offered you peace and pardon. If you don't accept don't blame Him.

"If I were in this business for money I'd have made your committee give me a guarantee before I came here.

"When you get right you'll have power in your life and joy in your soul."

All Bible classes in the city are invited to attend the Gypsy Smith revival services tomorrow night. Any organizations or numbers of people, either in or from outside the city, will be provided with seats so they can sit together in a body upon application to the ushers previous to any service.

WOMAN BEATEN TO DEATH

Husband, Accused of Atrocious Crime, Said to Have Left Written Confession.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 11—Sheriff A. E. Garrett, of Hertford County, N. C., yesterday brought to Norfolk the first news of the atrocious murder on last Thursday morning of Mrs. Leroy T. White, residing near Windsor, Bertie County. Mrs. White is said to have been beaten to death by her husband with the stock of a shotgun. When the body of the woman was discovered in the home seven hours after the crime, it was being cried over by the three-year-old son of the woman. A note left by White, in which it is declared that he acknowledged the crime, is held by the coroner of the county. Sheriff Garrett came to Norfolk to conduct a search for White, the sheriff of Bertie County fearing to leave the scene, as there are threats of a lynching should White be caught.

Mrs. White was twenty-three and White is twenty-seven years old. The young woman was a member of a mountain family, one of the best-known in Eastern North Carolina, and her estate is valued at $40,000. White was manager of the property. The motive for the crime is a mystery.

SLEMP FACES FIGHT OF LIFE

Democrats Hopeful of Defeating Only G. O. P. Congressman.

Washington, Sept. 11—Democratic leaders of Virginia have decided to make the hardest fight of their lives to defeat Representative Bascom Slemp, the lone Republican in Congress from that State and they think they have a good opportunity this year to elect a Democrat from the Ninth district.

The Democratic prospects in the Ninth district are so encouraging that Senator Thomas S. Martin, regarded as one of the shrewdest political organizers in the country, will go to Mr. Slemp's district as soon as he closes up his Senatorial work here and organize the campaign for Lee Trinkle, the Democratic nominee. This is the first time in six years that Senator Martin has undertaken this task in the Ninth. He has made political speeches for the Democratic candidates against Mr. Slemp but has never gone so far as to direct the campaign.

Mr. Trinkle has opened his campaign and in his first speech charged Representative Slemp with "absenteeism." He said that Mr. Slemp had not made speech in the House in two years; that he was seldom seen on the floor of Congress and spent most of his time looking after his private business affairs instead of devoting his energies to his Congressional duties. The Republicans realize that Mr. Slemp has a hard fight on his hands, due to the fact that President Wilson is immensely popular in Virginia and will strengthen the Congressional candidates. For that reason the Republican leaders want all their energies placed behind Mr. Slemp instead of scattering them in making a fight on Senator Swanson.

WHAT WOULD HUGHES DO?

G. O. P. Candidate Challenged in Democratic Text Book

PUTS 21 QUESTIONS

Designed to Bring Out What Points He Would Alter in Democratic Mode of Procedure

New York, Sept. 11—Candidate Charles E. Hughes and the Republican party are challenged in the Democratic National Textbook, to speak out for or against the record of achievement made by President Wilson and the Democrats.

The challenge is issued in 21 pointed questions addressed to Mr. Hughes and the Republicans by the Democratic National Committee and the Democratic Congressional Committee. All the large issues, domestic and international, are treated. The questions carry the caption, "Appeal for Light for Sixteen Million Voters: Let Mr. Hughes and the Republican Party Answer."

These questions are:

1. Do you favor repeal of the Federal Reserve act, passed by a Democratic Congress, recommended and approved by President Wilson, under which the danger of financial panics is forever banished from the United States?

2. Would you have protested against the violation of Belgian neutrality and have backed the protest by plunging America into the European carnival of slaughter?

3. Do you favor repeal of the Rural Credits act, passed by a Democratic Congress, recommended and approved by President Wilson, which gives long-term credit at interest rates that promise an annual saving of $150,000,000 to the farmers?

4. Would you have recognized Victoriano Huerta as President of Mexico?

5. Do you favor repeal of the Clayton Anti Trust act, passed by a Democratic Congress and approved by President Wilson, which overthrew the principle that the labor of a human being is a mere commodity of commerce?

6. Will you, Mr. Hughes, recommend and will the Republican party in Congress support a law establishing universal compulsory military service in the United States?

7. Do you advocate repeal of the Federal Trade Commission act, passed by a Democratic Congress, recommended and approved by President Wilson, which has given so much assistance to legitimate business enterprises and under which adequate protection against unfair competition is provided?

8. Mr. Hughes, would you have tried the policy of diplomatic negotiations as a means of summoning the moral force of law and neutral opinion to stop Germany's illegal use of submarines?

9. Do you favor repeal of the "porkless" Good Roads act, passed by a Democratic Congress and approved by President Wilson, for the development of rural highways?

10. Would you, Mr. Hughes, have broken relations with Germany and sent our young men by the hundreds of thousands to nameless graves at the bottom of the Atlantic or in Flanders before the policy of diplomatic negotiation had had thorough trial?

11. Will you undertake to repeal the income tax, passed by a Democratic Congress, recommended and approved by President Wilson, which places a just share of the burden of taxation upon those best able to bear it?

12. Do you favor violating neutrality and risking the future safety of your country by placing an embargo on munitions of war?

13. Do you favor repeal of the Agricultural Extension act, passed by a Democratic Congress, recommended and approved by President Wilson, which for the first time provides facfailities for carrying direct to the

ROUMANIAN CITY FALLS

Germans and Bulgars Capture Silistria, on River Danube

TAKE 21,000 CAPTIVE

Austrians Drive Back Roumanians in Transylvania and Are in Turn Repulsed.

Paris, Sept. 11 British troops have taken the offensive in the Balkans, it was officially announced here today.

The British crossed the Struma river at Orljax and attacked the Bulgarian at Nivolgen and Karad Juqueil. Heavy fighting is going on.

Berlin, Sept. 11—More than a third of the territory taken from Bulgaria by the Roumanians at the close of the second Balkan war has already been reconquered by the German-Bulgarian forces.

London, Sept. 11.—The Bulgarians are evacuating Varna, the principal port of the Black Sea, according to a semiofficial news agency dispatch from Odessa.

Berlin, Sept. 11—Official announcement was made today that the German and Bulgarin forces that are invading Eastern Roumania have captured the Roumanian fortress of Silistria, on the Danube, 60 miles southeast of Bucharest.

Silistria is one of the line of Roumanian fortresses on the southern bank of the Danube. It is 25 miles northeast of Turtukai, capture of which by the invaders was announced last week. It has figured as an important fortress in earlier wars. The town has about 15,000 inhabitants.

South of Dorna-Watra, in Southern Bukowina, near the Roumanian and Hungarian borders, the Germans have come in contact with Roumanian forces, the War Office announced today. The Russians gained ground west of Shypot, in the Carpathians near Babie.

The official Bulgarian report of September 7, which announces the capture of the Roumanian fortress of Turtukai after three days of violent fighting, gives the following additional information:

"We captured the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Fortieth, Seventy-fourth, Seventy-ninth, Eightieth and Eighty-fourth Infantry Regiments, and two battalions of a regiment of gendarmes. We also captured all the artillery of the fortress and plentiful supplies of ammunition, rifles, machine guns, etc.

"The number of prisoners and the amount of booty taken has not yet been ascertained. Up to the present time we have counted 400 officers, among whom there are 3 brigadier-generals, 21,000 unwounded soldiers, two flags and more than 100 modern cannon, among which were two batteries stolen in 1913 (during the second Balkan War in 1913, Roumanian compelled Bulgaria to cede Dobrudja, in which Turtukai is situated).

"The Roumanian losses in dead or wounded were enormous. Many Russian soldiers were drowned in the Danube during the fight in a panic."

Vienna, Sept. 11.—After a battle along the road between Petreseny and Hatzeg, in lower Transylvania, the invading Roumanian forces were driven back two and a half miles, the War Office announces. The Roumanians then launched a new and strong attack against the southern wing of the Austrian forces which was compelled to retire.

London, Sept. 11. —Reuters dispatch from Petrograd says:

"Russian cavalry has occupied several points on the Bulgar-Roumanian frontier.

"According to evidence received by the Russian commission of inquiry into Germany's method of warfare, columns of Russian prisoners in German uniform were marched to the rear on the Franco-German front with the purpose of deceiving French air scouts, who, taking them for German reserves, frequently dropped bombs on them."

MUST MUZZLE ALL DOGS

Small Boy Bitten By Canine and Owner Fined Five Dollars By Police Court

A small boy appeared in the Police Court last Saturday as the complainant against a man who had allowed an unmuzzled dog to run at large. The dog had bitten the boy. In the investigation of the case it was shown that the boy had teased the animal, but the fact remained that had the dog been muzzled no injury would have resulted. The owner was told that he must conform to the law. This morning another boy appeared and complained that he, too, had been bitten by the same canine. The dog, it seemed, was not the property of the man who was cited to appear Saturday, and another resident was the defendant this morning. Upon being asked by the court if the dog was muzzled, the owner stated that the animal was wearing the "regulation muzzle"—that is, it was supposed, a strap around its head. Justice Caton ruled that a dog, according to the law, must be effectually muzzled, and if this law was followed the dog could not bite, which is the object of the law. The accused was fined $5.

In this connection it may be stated that a muzzled dog is a curiosity in this city, athough the City Council a few years ago, during a mad dog scare, passed a law requiring all animals of the canine species which are allowed to run at large to be properly rendered harmless. No "regulation muzzle" in the nature of a strap is prescribed in the ordinance. Its intent is to provide for the effectual muzzling of all such animals.

FAREWELL SERMON.

The following is taken from the Dover, N. J., Index of last Friday:

"Enemies as well as friends and members" are invited to hear the farewell sermon which will be preached September 17 in the Free Methodist Church, Sussex street, by Rev. John Cavnaugh, known in this section as the "one-armed preacher." Mr. Cavnaugh has extended this invitation in circular letters. He has served in Dover and vicinity nearly ten years in his two pastorates here.

Rev. Mr. Cavnaugh is a familiar figure in Alexandria, which city he has visited at times during the past thirty-eight years. He was pastor of the Free Methodist Church, on south Lee street, for several years.

Notice is given to all persons in the City of Alexandria that I am prepared to collect such taxes as may be against them for 1916 collectable by the City Tax Collector. Attention is called to the extract from an ordinance of the City Council passed August 11th 1916.

These provisions will be strictly observed, and neither the 5 per cent. nor the 3 per cent. discount will be allowed a day beyond the time named in the act of Council.

If there is a delay in payment it will not be the fault of the collecting agencies of the city.

AUTOMOBILE MISHAPS

Four Accidents in and Near Alexandria Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Four accidents to autoists were reported to the Alexandria police from early Saturday evening until sunset yesterday. The first occurred at Virginia Highlands, in which two colored persons were injured, one seriously; the second in Fairfax county a short distance south of the city; the third on Washington street extended and the fourth on King street. A colored woman was the victim in the first mishap. She may be fatally injured. In the second accident an Alexandria lady had one of her arms broken; the third caused considerable injury to a buggy in which a woman in a delicate state of health was seated, and a colored youth, a cripple, had a narrow escape from serious injury in the fourth accident.

Four Washingtonians escaped injury when the Ford automobile in which they were riding collided with a motorcycle bearing a colored man and colored woman, of Alexandria, near Virginia Highlands about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Henry M. McKee, of 127 Fourth street, southeast, who was riding beside her husband in the front seat of the car, was shaken up, but uninjured. The other two occupants of the car were William McKee, a son, and Mrs. Edith Y. Johnson, Mr. McKee's sister-in-law. Sylvester L. Johnson, 26 and Carrie Johnson, 25, who live at 318 south Alfred street, the occupants of the motorcycle, were brought into Emergency Hospital, in Washington, in a passing auto. The woman has concussion of the brain. The man's injuries are slight. The McKees were going toward Washington and the motorcycle was on its way to this city. The collision was head-on. McKee says he was running 12 miles an hour at the time of the accident. He claims Johnson was not looking out for other vehicles The wrecked machines were brought to the Central Garage in this city, where they were viewed by many.

Rev. O. W. Triplett, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, was on his way to the Woodlawn Baptist Church where he was to hold services yesterday afternoon. Accompanying him in his automobile were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rothwell and Miss. Rector and daughter. About a mile south of the city they collided with a small machine driven by Mrs. Harry Miller, a member of the Salvation Army of Alexandria, which suddenly came out from a by-road. As a result, Mrs. Rothwell's right arm was broken and the others more or less shaken up. Mrs. Rothwell was brought to her home on King street, this city, where Dr. M. D. Delaney cared for her injuries. Mrs. Miller said that owing to the thick growth of bushes along the road she was unable to see ahead clearly, and it was evident that Rev. Mr. Triplett did not hear her signal which she gave with the auto horn. Mrs. Miller, had as occupants of her car, her little daughter, Hazel, six years old, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Todd, of Marcosson, Pa.

Later in the afternoon a buggy in which Dominic Nardincchi, and his wife were riding was badly smashed up by an automobile in which were Frank Raymor and Harold W. Cotton, white, and Reuben Brown, colored were seated. The trio were arrested later by Policeman Andrew Zell. Mr. and Mrs. Nardinocchi were both thrown out of their carriage, and she sustained scalp wounds which were dressed by Dr. T. Marshall Jones.

Raymor was fined $50 in the Police Court this morning for reckless driving.

Frank Parker, who was in charge of an automobile on upper King St., early last night, sidewiped a wagon in which Perry Davis, colored, was seated. It was at first thought Davis had been seriously injured, and Parker placed the youth in his auto and rushed him to the Alexandria Hospital. It was found that he had sustained no real injury. Davis is a cripple and he sells papers on the street, being pushed about in a wagon.

Negro Discharges Pistol While Drunk and Resists Arrest When Officers Aproach

There is an old couplet which reads

Wherever God erects a house of prayer,
The Devil always builds a chapel there.

Synchronously with the erection of the tabernacle on upper King street for the Gypsy Smith revival services a flying horse tent was placed a few squares away. It is mostly patronized by negroes. William Johnson, one of the attaches, was drunk early last night while the huge audience near by was singing praises to the Creator. Johnson became disorderly, and in order to let the neighborhood know he was around, discharged a pistol. Officers Reed and Power appeared and approached Johnson, who declined to be put under arrest. The officers, however, soon demonstrated to the negro that they had come for him and were determined to take him. Previous to firing the pistol Johnson had had some trouble with a young colored woman.

He was brought before the Police Court this morning when he attempted to convince that tribunal that he was inside the tent cleaning the pistol. The colored woman, however, who was present, stated that after discharging the weapon he entered the tent and threw it upon a table. Justice Caton imposed a fine of twenty dollars. Should he fail to meet the assessment he will serve the next ninety days in jail, subject to service on the roads.

POLICE COURT

(Justice H. B. Caton, presiding)

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lucian Clark, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed.

William Johnson, colored, charged with being drunk, disorderly and with carrying a pistol, was fined $20.

Lizzie Jackson, colored, charged with assaulting Lizzie Brown, colored, was fined $5.

John Page, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Harold W. Cotton, charged with recklessly operating an automobile, was fined $50.

Several white men, charged with sitting upon the sidewalk in front of a Prince St., residence, were dismissed with an admonition.

Come and bring your friends with you, and we feel sure you will say after the meeting "I am glad that I came; the meeting has done me good."

CROWDS WITHIN AND WITHOUT THE TENT.

Many years ago an old and much-esteemed citizen had a great aversion to church bells. Unfortunately for him his home was sandwiched between two houses of worships, and he being of a studious nature and not a regular church-goer, the clanging of bells on Sunday mornings and at night rendered him irritable, so much so that he wrote long communications to the Alexandria Gazette urging their abolition. Had he been with us last night he would not have been shocked by bells nor chimes. The clappers hung inanimate. The congregations of the churches were wending their way to the gospel tent on upper King street where Gypsy Smith was to speak. There was no brass band nor other device to attract the piously disposed, and by the time the services were started every seat in the huge tent was occupied, while hundreds stood without and listened to the spiritual songs and sermon. The sides of the tent were opened, so that auditors within and without could hear. The services were of the thrilling nature which was in evidence a week ago when the tent was first thrown open. It was calculated that about one-fourth the population of the city was out, while hundreds from Alexandria and Fairfax counties, and others from Washington and nearby places were present. The presence of many young men in the audience was refreshing.

Within a sea of heads greeted the evangelist. It was doubtless the largest number of persons ever gathered on any occasion in Alexandria. Mr. Smith preached from the query of the Philippian jailer—"What shall I do to be saved?"—and the answer of Paul and Silas.

While the songs were animating and Mr. Smith's discourse thrilling, one of the most touching incidents of the evening was the testimony of Louis C. Barley, Judge of the Corporation Court of Alexandria. The judge is the chairman of the committee financing the revival movement and after having, in a succinct manner, stated the condition of the exchequer, he gave his witness as a follower of Jesus Christ. The judge's words sent thrills through the vast audience, which became so enthused that they involuntarily broke out in applause.

The fruits of Gypsy Smith's campaign in Alexandria are not yet fully apparent, but, from the great interest shown, there is much to strengthen the hope that the effects of his visit to our city will be far-reaching.

The earnest testimony of Judge Barley, we believe, will be followed by that of others, and while we are not hoping for a Pentecostal outflowing, old Alexandria may be surprised at the close of the meetings while singing the old hymn, "Bringing in the Sheaves," to find that many others have received the word with joy.

Paul on his visit to Athens deliver-ed a discourse before the Areopagites, upon Mar's Hill. It being a capital offense to introduce new gods into Greece at that time, as there were already thirty thousand deities in the land, the great apostle took for his text Agnoste Theo—the unknown god. We are told that Dionysius, the Areopagite, was among those who believed. Dionysius, as an Areopagite, was a member of the high court of Athens. Gypsy Smith has been used to bring more fully into the fold a Dionysius of Alexandria. We rejoice to known that he will be among the Lord's jewels at His glorious reappearance.

ANOTHER J. T. HARE.

"I'll split fifty-fifty with you," said a highway robber to W. Stewart Griscom, of Philadelphia after he had held up Mr. Griscom's motor car in a lonely road near Cambridge, Mass., early yesterday and taken $50 from him. Mr. Griscom explained to the highwayman that his wife, who was in the automobile, was ill.

During the early part of the last century an individual of the Claude Duval genus known as Joseph T. Hare, was hanged near Baltimore for highway robbery. Hare's adventures extended all the way from Maryland to New Orleans. His history was interesting reading, and much of it was given in the Alexandria Gazette of that time. Hare, while a noted highwayman, had soft places in his heart, and when he held up a man he always returned to him money sufficient to carry him to his objective point. If he took a watch from the pocket of one of his victims and found it was a gift from a deceased relative, he would return the timepiece. In opening mail bags he was careful not to disturb letters sealed with black wax. After Hare had been executed a book containing his life and exploits was published. This production passed out of print about the time the civil war was breaking out, A book of the same size, also appeared at that time giving the life of Monroe Edwards, a noted counterfeiter of his day.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Under the above heading the Gazette will be pleased to give reasonable space to any person who desires to make comment upon matters of general interest to the public. Writers will of course be responsible for their utterances. A a guarantee of good faith, the name and address of the writer of any article submitted for publication will be required in each instance.—Editor Gazette.

FROM A WOMAN WHO DEPLORED REVIVALS.

Editor Gazette:

A church woman who has ever deplored the methods of revivals, wended her way to the big tent on upper King street last night and came home a much chastened woman.

Truly it was a wonderful and inspiring sight!

The huge tent was packed to the utmost, with an overflow of hundreds on the outside. As she looked around at the sea of eager, intent faces, heard the inspiring hymns, sung by the large and splendidly trained choir and then listened to the words of the gypsy preacher, who held the breathless interest of that vast throng, as he told in simple forcible words' "What we Must do to be Saved," she wondered if Alexandria fully appreciated this privilege extended her by the Laymen's League, in bringing Gypsy Smith for these services.

And right here she wants to take off her hat to the men of the Laymen's League for their work in making these things possible. To bring together as a unit all of our churches. What a power for good and a help to make "Alexandria For Christ."

nd so this "woman who didn't care for revivals," would send his message to those who haven't attended these meetings: Go—Go often — and Go early. Mrs. M. L. S.

NEWS OF THE DAY

According to the Copenhagen Politiken, an airship factory at Frankfort has been destroyed by fire. Four large Zeppelins, almost completed, and fifteen aeroplanes were destroyed.

F. Grover C. Stiner, residing near Baltimore, was killed and his nephew William H. Collins, was slightly injured yesterday morning when a motorcycle they were riding was struck by a train of the Northern Central Railway.

German casualties in the war during the month of August it is said, totaled 240,900. This brings the German total since the beginning of the war, as compiled from the same sources, to 3,375,000. These figures include all the German nationalities, but do not include the naval and colonial casualties.

The condition of Mrs. Annie E. Howe, only sister of President Woodrow Wilson, who has been seriously ill at a New London hotel, for a week, was pronounced critical last night by her physician. Virtually no hope is held for her recovery. She is suffering from peritonitis and complications.

Charles E. Hughes' prestige as leader of the Republican party will be fixed by the results of the Maine election today. A badly split party is awaiting apprehensively the returns of that State. The old Guard element is in open revolt. Barred practically from any participation in the campaign, it foresees crushing defeat in November under the campaign methods that have been followed to date.

James O'Hara, a wounded and discharged soldier, of Glasgow, learned the art of bomb throwing at the front and grew callous in regard to results. Early yesterday a crowd of men and women in the rear of his tenement became noisy. O'Hara asked for quiet, and when he received a derisive reply hurled a hand grenade into the crowd. One man and a girl of, 9 years were killed and a dozen other persons were wounded. When O'Hara was arrested it was discovered that he had in his possession a quantity of ammunition.

Guy Suite, 17 years old, son of Marshall Suite, near Chaptico, Md., was almost instantly killed near Mechanicsville shortly before noon yesterday when he was struck by the automobile of Charles A. Fox, of Baltimore, driven by Mr. Fox's chauffeur. Suite was riding a bicycle on the left side of the street when the accident occurred. The machine was unseen by him until it was nearly on him. He swerved the bicycle suddenly and at the same time the chauffeur, trying to avoid a collision, swung the car to the middle of the road, running into the boy.

Announcement was made at the University of Pennsylvania Museum, Philadelphia, of a receipt of a communication from Dr. Clarence S. Fisher, head of the Eckley B. Coxe, Jr. expedition in Egypt describing the discovery of the "greatest of all palaces" occupied by the emperors of ancient Egypt. According to Dr. Fisher's letter the excavated palace contains the famed Biblican throne room where Moses and Aaron appeared before Pharaoh and demanded liberation of the Israelites.

Enraged because of practice of a strange sect known as the "Holy Rollers," a mob of men and boys, armed with guns, axes and clubs, raided the "church" of the order at Carlisle a mining town in the mountains near Gadsden, Ala., drove the worshippers away and razed the building. The Holy Rollers claim to talk with God in "strange tongues." A year ago one of the "preachers" permitted a snake to bite him to demonstrate to a crowd that even a reptile could not harm one of God's chosen children. The snake sank its fangs into the man's arm. Twenty-four hours later the man was dead.

Willis Deering, a bachelor, aged 86 years, died at his home, Sandy, Rappahannock county, seven miles east of Front Royal, Saturday. It was said that he was worth more than $1,000,000 and that he willed to his ten nieces and nephews $100,000 each.

UNIONS TO AID CARMEN

All in New York, With 800,000 Members. Pledged—Surface Lines Badly Crippled.

New York, Sept. 11—An order recommending a general strike of New York's 800,000 trade unionists in sympathy with the transit strike which today affected New York, Bronx, and Queens counties, went out to the union heads today.

New York, Sept. 11.—Undivided moral and financial support of all trade unionists in Greater New York who, it is estimated, number 800,000, was pledged to the striking carmen here last night in resolutions adopted at a conference attended by Samuel Gompers, the president of the American Federation of Labor; officials of the New York Central Federated Union, the Brooklyn Central Labor Union and the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes.

Mr. Gompers, who received here late yesterday in response to an appeal from the Central Federation [illegible] a statement in which he referred to the "efforts" of the heads of the interborough Rapid Transit Company, which operates the subway and elevated railway lines, and officers of the various surface car roads affected by the strike "to crush the spirit of organization among the employes of these railroads."

Mr. Gompers asserted that the carmen were determined to "exercise their right to organize, the right to strive rationally and normally for the improvement of their conditions as employes of the companies, and to have submitted to a board of arbitration such differences which the committees of the employes and the representatives of the companies fail to adjust."

Fred L. Yancey, machinist, employed at the Richmond branch of the American Locomotive Company, came home Saturday morning, after working all night and quarreled with his wife. He then went into another room and picked up a small phial of carbolic acid, which she had bought for household purposes a few days ago, went into the bathroom. Fifteen minutes later, his brother-in-law, Samuel Bowles, went to the bathroom and found the door locked. Hearing groans on the inside, Bowles broke in and found Yancey lying on the floor with the empty phial beside him. He dragged the prostrate man out into the hall, where death ensued in a few moments before a doctor could be summoned.

"I HAVE NOW THROWN MY CRUTCHES ASIDE" SAYS, MRS. SNYDER.

Suffered Many Years From Rheumatism. Gives all Credit to Dreco

"When a medicine gets you over troubles you've had for years and takes you off crutches, there's nothing in the world too good to say about it, and that's what Dreco has done for me, and I certainly ought to be willing to testify to the truth and let everybody know about it."

This unusual statement was made by Mrs. C. Snyder of 439 Liberty Street, Allentown, Pa.

"Yes", continued Mrs. Snyder, "I've been a cripple with rheumatism for a long time and for three years I've been using crutches and hadn't been able to do anything about the house for a good many years back. That's the plain fact and my folks and all the neighbors know of my helpless condition, and will tell you the same thing any time you ask 'em."

"I would have severe pains in the hips and small of my back even when I wasn't trying to get about, and besides that, I was not in a very good general condition. It may have started because I could'nt get about and take exercise, but I lost my appetite and things didn't taste good nor agree with me after I had eaten. I was constipated a good deal, too.

"I saw where Dreco was helping a great many people and I thought maybe it would make me feel a little better even if it failed to help my pains; but I am happy to say it has done 100 times more than I expected, for I have laid aside the old crutches and am now actually doing all my house work.

"I have taken five bottles and can walk anywhere I want to without crutches and my rheumatism pains have left me. My appetite is good and I can eat anything I want without its bothering me in the least, and I believe if I continue to take it awhile longer it will make me entirely well for good and all.

"I want everybody to know about this great medicine, for it certainly is wonderful—my case ought to prove that to anybody. I want everybody that has such troubles to get it and stop wasting their money on quack medicines."

Dreco is now sold exclusively in Alexandria by Allen's Drug Store.

18. Do you favor the reactionary Republican plan of granting huge subsidies to favored corporations, money collected from the people by taxation, as the best way of encouraging the development of an American merchant marine?

19. Do you favor a repeal of the Child Labor law, the Anti-Injunction law, the Seaman's act and related social justice measures of high importance, passed by a Democratic Congress and recommended and approved by President Wilson?

20. Do you favor re-enactment of the Payne-Aldrich act, which betrayed your party's campaign pledge of 1908 and which has been repudiated by many Republican and all Progressive leaders?

21. Do you stand with those Progressives and progressive Republicans in Congress who voted for practically all the progressive measures mentioned above, or do you stand with the reactionary Republicans who voted against them?"

In conclusion, the two Democratic committees say:

"President Wilson and the Democratic party submit their case to the American people on the record they have made. Broadly speaking that is the issue of the campaign. Upon the public survey and estimate of that record depends the outcome of the election.

If, as charged by you, Mr. Hughes, and your supporters, that record is bad and does not justify the continued concidence of the country it will become your duty, if elected, to do all in your power to change that record. We submit that in all fairness the American people for whose verdict you are contesting, are entitled to know how much of this record you and your party will attempt to destroy if placed in power."

may be visited upon a man at short notice, and misery if not physical collapse may be occasioned by the worry and suffering. Just think, a fire insurance policy is a panacea for these great tragedies of flame, smoke and water, which on occasions wipe out almost an entire city.
